TROJANS WERE RATTLED.

Result Was an Easy Victory for the Dorpians.

Troy, May 24.—The local team took a severe case of rattles in the fourth inning and never recovered. The error column does not begin to show the misplays Troy made. Two collisions occurred in the field. Phillips pitched good ball and in the three innings that the visitors scored no runs were made until chances were offered to retire the side. Score:

A PITCHERS' BATTLE.

It Took Fifteen Innings to Decide Game Between Utica and Dorp.

Schenectady, June 3.—For over three hours and covering 15 innings, Schenectady and Utica wrestled to-day in a pitchers' battle. Both Villeman and Magee pitched strong games, and their support was good. The game was won by Betts' long three-base hit after two were out in the fifteenth inning, scoring Scheffler from first base. Throughout the contest both teams were on the alert, and several times, with men on bases, the pitchers were called upon to exert themselves to the utmost to prevent them scoring. Feature plays by Betts, Eagan, Earl, Downey, Hurley, Ellis, Gleason, Seigle and O'Neill marked the game. The contest was marred by continuous kicking on the part of Taylor and Eustace, who handled McKeever pretty roughly, but were neither fined nor put out of the game. Score:

MILLS WAS IN CONTROL.

Binghamton Could Not Break His Record on the Twelfth Game.

Schenectady, June 16.—Mills had perfect control to-day and had Binghamton guessing throughout. He won his twelfth straight game with ease. Wolfe was inclined to be wild, but when he found the plate he was effective. Sensational fielding by Ellis, Downey, Eagan, Donovan, Collopy and Croft, and Eagan's batting, were the features. Score:
